Mail Date: April 21, 2016

Claimant ID:1234567

Dear Sir or Madame:

A notice of overpayment of unemployment insurance benefits has been mailed to you. The Employment Security Law 96-18(g)(2) requires refund of overpaid benefits. Since an unpaid balance of <overpaid balance> remains due, this debt was submitted to the Department of Revenue for collection in accordance with North Carolina Law [N.C.G.S. 105A-3]. Please be advised that <overpaid balance> of your state income tax refund will be applied to this overpayment of unemployment insurance benefits.

If you have any questions concerning this determination, you may write to the Division of Employment Security at the address shown below or fax us at 919.857.1296.

Sincerely,

Benefits Integrity Section

Appeal Rights Expire: <APPEAL RIGHTS EXPIRATION DATE>

Appeal Rights: Any appeal filed will be considered to determine whether the claimed sum asserted as due and owing is correct and/or to establish the identity of the debtor. A statement of intent to appeal must state which of these issues you wish to pursue or the appeal will be denied. An appeal to this decision will not be used to re-litigate or re-adjudicate the overpayment or issue that caused the overpayment. This determination to take all or part of your state income tax refund is the final determination of the Division unless an appeal is received on or before. An appeal may be filed by reporting to an office of the Division or by mailing it to the address shown below.

If mailed, attach a copy of this determination to your appeal. Failure to enter a written appeal will be taken as your consent to this action.
